

ENTER TO WIN FREE TRAINING FOR YOUR DEPARTMENT

Here's how.....

- 1) Head over to the DT4EMS, LLC Facebook page by clicking -----> DT4EMS and click "LIKE"
- 2) Then post on the DT4EMS Facebook page why you feel scene safety training is important for your agency. You may share a personal story of an assault, a situation you have personal knowledge of, write about how there is a need in your particular area etc.....That's it!!

Obviously, the more descriptive the story, the better the chance of winning.

If your agency wins.....We will come to you!!! That's right, on-site training.

The winning agency will receive the full 16-hour Escaping Violent Encounters course at no cost to the agency. The class size will be limited to 24 people. A course description may be viewed hereby clicking here-----> EVE

This package is valued at $3000.00 (covers travel, expenses, instructor fees, course materials)

Certificates and CEU's will be awarded to all who successfully complete the course.

RULES:

No purchase necessary. No Cash Value.

We DT4EMS, LLC will have a panel of judges, made up of our instructors across the US. They will pick the best story and make a selection on the agency to receive our training.

The winning agency will have to provide a suitable (size) training location and locate mats for safety.

This training can be provided to an "area" not just the single agency. Meaning, the winning agency can open available slots for neighboring agencies.

An agency may post as many stories/incidents during the contest period, but may only post once per day.

The winning agency must be within the continental US.

Escaping Violent Encounters

Stories will be judged on:

- Verifiable incident
- Content

Fictional stories will not be considered.

*Contest restricted to EMS/Fire and healthcare employee/agencies

Training Dates will be agreed upon by both winning agency and DT4EMS, LLC

Contest ends September 1, 2012.